94th YEAR No. 9

FIFTEEN CENTS

Sequoits are set for opening game

In a "wide open race" for the Northwest Suburban Conference this fall, the enthusiastic Antioch High School's Sequoits "hope to do well."

That statement was made by Head Coach Steve Wapon, beginning his second year at ACHS.

Many coaches in the conference have labeled the Antioch team as "the team to beat."

The Sequoits, consisting of 45 players, will begin its season against Crystal Lake Central Sept. 8 in a home game. The sophomore team will play at noon and the varsity team at 2 p.m.

Antioch is backed by an experienced backfield, including senior halfback Dennis Flaschner and senior fullback Mitch Case. Jim Sertic will lead the offense as quarterback. Sertic, a senior, played the position for half of last year's season.

Mark Pomazak has "excellent potential," Wapon said. Pomazak, at 6'1" and 202 pounds, was the leading ground gainer for the sophomore squad last season.

Greg Stevens will also be returning to the field this year. Stevens saw limited playing time last year and will play wingback spot.

Dan Behne, a starter last year, is returning as an offensive end. Behne also does some kicking for the Sequoits. Last season he made a school record with his 17 points after touchdowns.

The offensive line is "young because of graduation losses," Wapon explained.

The youthful but "good underclass line" also includes junior John Eckert, who lettered last season as a sophomore. He will return as offensive and defensive tackle.

"We're very high on his potential," Wapon said. "He looks like an excellent player. He started all last year and he is the best blocking interior lineman we have," he added.

"Our goal is to control the ball and that is what we'll attempt to do," Wapon said. "Last year we had limited success early. In the last three games of mid-season, we lost by three, two and one points and then we won three in a row, including 14-8 over Grant in the last game."

Although the team is "fairly young on defense," it will shine with "good experience and good speed" offensively, Wapon reported.

Cornerback Tim Webb will return on defense this season although he saw only playing-time last season due to an injury. Webb "has the most experience," said Ted DeRousse, defensive coordinator.

Behne was singled out as looking good during practice in the safety position. "We've got to bring some young people along in the defensive secondary, which isn't a new problem for us. It seems to happen every year," DeRousse said.

Flaschner, as a linebacker, "played a lot and is the only one with a lot of experience," DeRousse said.

Front line defensive men are Jeff Andre and Plett, who have done well in drills at tackle and end respectively, the defensive coordinator said.

"Defensively, we have less experience than offensively," DeRousse explained. "Defenses play with enthusiasm and our biggest strength is that we have a lot of enthusiasm. Our people play with a lot of desire and enthusiasm and should be able to do the job."

Mini-bus takes seniors to the picnic

The Chain Of Lakes Senior Services mini-bus was the means of transportation for the many clients and volunteer workers who attended Senior Citizens' Recognition Day at the Lake County Lakewoods Forest Preserve at Wauconda.

The following attended and thoroughly enjoyed the activities and the delightful weather: Joseph Titus, Ella Cerny, Marie Banasack, Sophie Misilunis, Anna Zalatoris, Emma Engle, Marcella Kaitis, Ursula Siefert, Myra Randall, Gertrude Mann, Juanita Tranker, Marie Stanek, Madelyn Swinfink, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lather, Anna Kovar, Bernice Lundquist, Helen Dowell, Alta Turner, Ruth Duha, Marguarite Koenig, Mary Amundson, Lena Message and Nadine Malik.

Joe Titus and Bernice Lundquist were the lucky recipients of prizes, Joe receiving a lovely wallet and Bernice a beautiful scarf.

Mrs. Walsh returns home

One of Antioch's best known and beloved senior citizens returned home last week to continue recuperating from a broken hip.

Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh, 328 Depot St., spent the summer months at a health center in Lake Bluff receiving treatments following a month in the hospital. She suffered the hip injury April 6.

"It's good to be home. You always feel better at home," Mrs. Walsh stated. She will be 90 on her next birthday.

For years Mrs. Walsh was a "right spot" during the morning hours at the former Antioch Restaurant, serving breakfast to early risers, pouring coffee for downtown business people on their morning break and giving everyone a cheery greeting.

Inquest date set

An inquest into the death of Chris Oddsen will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 6 in room C107 of the Lake County Court House.

Oddsen, 19, drowned when he was sucked into an open storm sewer during heavy rains.

He was driving his car along North Ave. in over three feet of water when the vehicle stalled. He was pulled into the swirling water when he walked behind the car at the intersection of North Ave. and Oakwood.

A life long Antioch resident, Oddsen was a June graduate of Antioch Community High School. He was employed by Adesco Electric, Inc.

Walsh to run for Congress

Don Walsh, former Antioch businessman, will announce his candidacy for the 1st Congressional District of Wisconsin formally Tuesday, Sept. 11.

Walsh, now a resident of Racine, Wis., has called a press conference at the Holiday Inn, Kenosha, to outline his campaign plans. Walsh will run as a Republican.

The Congressional candidate is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walsh of Petite Lake. While in Antioch Walsh ran a clothing and sports store. He is a past president of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Blood clinic slated

The Lake County Health Dept. holds a number of health care programs each week at various community sites in the county. Blood pressure clinics for adults and immunization clinics for children are offered to Lake County residents at no charge.

In Antioch, on Wednesday, Sept. 12, at the Antioch Public Library, 757 Main St., from 2 to 4 p.m.

At the clinics nurses screen individuals for high blood pressure and refer those with elevated blood pressure to a physician for medical evaluation.

For further information, call the Hypertension Program, Lake County Health Department, 689-6715.

New store features clothes for kids

Everything from A to Z in infants and children's wear can be found at the new store in town, the Yellow Brick Road.

The store, stocking sizes from infancy through 6x has "just about anything you'd need for a baby," said Pat Folbrick, a partner in the business with her sister Ginny Henning.

Christening dresses and communion dresses and veils as well as coordinating nursery fashions can be found at the shop located in the Park Avenue Mall. Youth furniture can also be ordered through the store.

The sisters, both lifelong Antioch residents, began the business because they both "love little kids" and decided there was a need for a store like it in town.

"It's so much fun to have the little ones in here," Mrs.

Folbrick said. The bright yellow store even has a small slide.

Getting the store set up has been "a real family operation," she said. "Everybody pitched in to help us—grandmas and grandpas and aunts and uncles."

The grand opening of the store was held last weekend, featuring clowns, balloons, candy and a caliope restored by the sisters' father and brother.

Township honors seniors

The Antioch township hall has been busy, having provided a bus for about 44 senior citizens to attend a recognition day in their honor.

In other news, the landscaping around the Antioch Township Hall has been completed after two years of work.

Final tax bills will be received by Antioch residents between the third and 11th of Sept., said township supervisor Jim Fields. The due date for payment is Oct. 11.

The next township meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 13 at the Antioch Township Hall.

Truancy program joined

The Antioch Grade School Board made a joint agreement with the Lake County superintendent of schools to be eligible to participate in a program to prevent potential junior high and high school truants and dropouts from leaving school.

The agreement gives the Grade School District the opportunity to refer students into the program should students needing additional help be found.

Antioch Open golf tourney deadline is Sept. 26

Registrations are already coming in for the Antioch Open Golf tournament.

Early registrants are hoping for an edge against the tough competition expected in the tournament sponsored by The Antioch News, Lakeland Newspapers and Harbor Ridge Country Club.

All male amateur golfers in the Lakeland area are eligible to compete Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 29 and 30 at Harbor Ridge Country Club, Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Rd.

PUBLISHER WILLIAM Schroeder said the 36 hole competition will feature four divisions determined by handicap—Championship, 0-8; Class A, 9-13; Class B, 14-19 and Class C, 20 and over.

Deadline for entries is Sept. 26. Further information can be obtained by calling Jim Urban, Harbor Ridge pro, at 395-3004.

Club professionals and golf league secretaries can provide verification of handicap for entrants who do not have a regular handicap, Schroeder said.

A COMMITTEE has been named to handle arrangements. Chairman is Nick Teister, president of the Harbor Ridge Golf Club. Members include Jim Urban, Robert Knourek, Bill Collins and Andy Anderson.

The entry fee is $25, which covers green fees, trophies and prizes.

"Our aim is to stage an interesting, fun tournament. We want to make it as convenient as possible for golfers to enter," Teister said.

Antioch High to host sportsmanship seminar

Antioch Community High School is hosting the first Northwest Suburban Conference Sportsmanship Seminar.

"The seminar is an attempt to start the 1979-80 school year on a positive note by having the coaches and participants meet the members of conference schools in an other-than competition atmosphere," said Arthur Blecke, ACHS principal.

"The administrators of the conference have expressed concern in the past few years over the various problems that have occurred between conference schools," he explained.

"IN OUR opinion, the football season sets the tone for the entire school year in regard to sportsmanship and inter-school relationships," he said in a letter to NWSC schools.

"Through the seminar, we hope to restate the principles under which interscholastic athletics were initiated, re-examine the responsibilities of the individual team members and schools, reinforce the positive aspects of good sportsmanship and re-dedicate ourselves to these ideals."

"The NWSC has long been in the forefront of positive efforts to upgrade the athletic programs of the State of Illinois," Blecke said. "Hopefully, this will be but the first of a series of such efforts to reunite educators for our common benefits and, more importantly, the benefit of the students and athletes entrusted to our care."

ATTENDING THE seminar will be varsity football team members, cheerleaders, school administrators, coaches and sponsors of schools in the conference.

It will be held Thursday, Sept. 6 from noon to 3 p.m.

Topics to be presented include responsibilities of the school in athletics and three reports on sportsmanship.

Refreshments will be served in the school cafeteria by the ACHS Football Mothers Club.

WINNERS — Marty Berry, left, and Judy Houghton proudly display team trophy that Antioch swimmers won at the Annual Invitational Swim Meet that was held Sunday, August 12. Teams competing this year include Waukegan, Kenosha, Brentwood, and Libertyville.

Mrs. Lang ads spark to parks and recreation

When Dee Lang speaks of her job as assistant coordinator for Antioch parks and recreation, her eyes become bright with the enthusiasm she has for the department's programs.

It is up to her to "make sure everything runs smoothly and to be Glenda's (director of parks and recreation) right hand," she said.

Mrs. Lang has a knack for planning, enjoys people, and has a special quality for working well with youngsters.

About four years ago she began working as a volunteer for parks and recreation, where she was later employed part time. She now has a full time position and is a housewife as well.

The 29-year-old said she found "many resources to be tapped in Antioch" although the department is not state funded.

She finds the job exciting and a certain glow comes over her as she talks about it. "To me, it's sensational—a very exciting position." "I could talk forever about my job because I love it."

"You plan it (an activity) and you watch it go off and it's just super," she said. "If you can carry through your enthusiasm to everyone else, everything goes well."

With her exuberance, it's hard not to get enthusiastic by just talking with her.

Reflecting on the recreation program, she said, "Everybody does well at what they do and everybody enjoys it, which is the main thing," she said.

She is making plans now for Camp Crayola, a morning camp for youngsters. Crafts, games, story time and treats are planned.

The camp gives children the opportunity to "do something right" on their own, she said.

"There are so many shy kids that come in—if one turns around and is not so shy at the end, it will have been worth it to me."

Many hours are put into planning an event or program, she said.

"Everything that's done has been planned and discussed."

"We are here to serve everybody—from pre-schoolers to seniors," Mrs. Lang said. "We aren't here for a select few."

She described the department as an "open door" for ideas, activities and suggestions.

With a flair for supervision, Mrs. Lang said her "mind starts snapping" with ideas during programs to keep people interested.

Her favorite part of the job is "all of it—it's just a very interesting job. If I didn't love my work I wouldn't be putting the time in," she said. "It's just something I really, really enjoy."

"The potential here is fantastic," Mrs. Lang said. Some of the programs she is planning include a fourth to sixth grade basketball program for boys, a baton twirling class and tumbling and yoga classes for the spring.

"The key is to motivate people," she said. "If they are motivated, then I've been a success," she said.

Other aspects of her job include office work and critiquing each program. "In here, you're a person of many hats," she said.

An Antioch resident for the past six years, Mrs. Lang said she thinks "Antioch is a super town—the people are nice. It's a good town to bring up kids in," said the mother of a three year old son.

An athletic person herself, Mrs. Lang "has always had an interest in recreation."

"I've always been a planner," she said. Mrs. Lang has even thought of family plans for this coming Christmas, she said.

The summer staff is "sensational," she said. "I can't say enough to praise them." She described her co-workers as "people that are going to roll along with you...and think ahead."

Everyone "worked so well together," it was like "one big family," she said. "Everyone wanted to come through. They're a super group of kids."

During her spare time, Mrs. Lang enjoys spending time with her husband, Douglas and her son Derek, age 3. She likes to attend sporting events, such as basketball games where her husband is an official and also likes to ski.

Grade school tells free lunch policy

The Antioch Community Consolidated Grade School District announced its policy for free milk, free lunch and reduced price lunch for children unable to pay the full price of lunch and milk served under the National School Lunch, School Breakfast, and Special Milk Programs.

Local school officials have adopted the family size and income criteria for determining eligibility. Children from families whose income is at or below the levels are eligible for free milk, free lunch and reduced price lunch.

In addition, families that do not meet these criteria but have expenses such as unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 per cent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, or disaster or casualty are urged to apply.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them, the family should contact the school. If a family member becomes unemployed or if family size changes, the family should contact the school to file a new application. Such changes may make the children of the family eligible for reduced price meals, or for additional benefits such as free meals and milk if the family income falls at or below the family income level.

To discourage the possibility of misrepresentation, the application forms contain a statement above the space for signature certifying that all information furnished in the application is true and correct. An additional statement is added to warn that the application is being made in connection with the receipt of Federal funds, that school officials may, for cause, verify the information in the application and that deliberate misrepresentation of information may subject the applicant to prosecution under applicable State and criminal statutes.

All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay. In the operation of child nutrition programs, no child will be discriminated against because of his/her race, sex, color, or national origin.

Application forms are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

Scott Ash, 24, of rural Antioch, died as a result of injuries suffered in the accident when his motorcycle including one sitting on the hood of the vehicle.

Fire Dept. lists gas station rules

During the current gasoline crunch, the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Antioch Fire Dept. wants to remind all gasoline service station owners and operators of the following section of the Red Book as published by the State Fire Marshal's office.

Bulk sales are prohibited — No motor fuels shall be dispensed at any service station, except directly into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles, when such tanks are connected with the carburetion systems of such vehicles, provided, however, that individual sales up to five gallons may be made in approved metal receptacles when painted red and labeled in full conformity with the Illinois Red Can Gasoline Law. Such individual sales are to be limited to five gallons to any one person.

No flammable liquids are allowed within the building. Exceptions are, no gasoline, naphtha or other liquids of class 1 shall be kept inside of service station; no alcohol or other flammable anti-freeze solutions shall be kept inside of service station, except in original sealed containers. No transfer of such liquids from these receptacles to other receptacles shall be made inside the service station.

No person other than an owner of a service station or an employee of such owner, shall use or operate any motor fuel dispensing equipment at any service station. No owner of a service station shall permit any person to violate the provisions of this rule.

As used in this rule, the term service station means any place of business where gasoline or any volatile fuel for internal combustion engines is sold or offered for sale at retail, and dispensed into the fuel tanks of such internal combustion engines.

The fuel tank of no motor vehicle shall be serviced until motor and ignition have been shut off.

No smoking shall be permitted on premises at any time.

No open lights or flames shall be permitted about premises except in stove within the station building.

Premises shall be kept neat and clean, and free from rubbish or trash.

Cleaning with gasoline, naphtha, or other highly flammable liquids of Classes I and II shall not be permitted in or around the service station.

Underground tanks which develop leaks or which are permanently discontinued in service shall be removed promptly or shall be filled with sand. The sand is to be flushed in with water until a complete sand fill is secured.

Each service station shall be equipped with at least one approved chemical fire extinguisher suitable for oil or gasoline fires.

Youth hunting program to begin

The Antioch Jaycee Shooter Safety Program is set for every Monday night from Sept. 10 to Oct. 22.

The course will be held at the Antioch lower grade school, Main and Depot Sts. Instruction will run from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. so that kids may be home by 8 p.m.

This is a safety program to teach kids how to handle guns properly using Daisy air rifles. It is open to boys and girls from ages 8 to 14.

Parents are encouraged to attend and watch their children learn.

Jay Bruski, chairman of the project, said, "There will be no charge to participants. We are running this as a community service project. We hope the parents will attend and make this something of a family experience."

The project has the support of Bill Brook, president of the State Bank of Antioch, and Chuck Miller, chief of police. In fact, Chief Miller will have his own son attend the course.

For more information about this program, call Jay Bruski during the evenings at 395-5047. For information about the Jaycees, call R.J. Utterback at 395-2700 or Phil Schaub at 395-3030.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Keep a close watch on the North Avenue Mall during the next two weeks.

Phil Badame is busy preparing for the grand opening of his new pizza carry out establishment to be appropriately named "North Avenue Pizza." Best of luck on your new venture, Phil.

What a lady. Anita Gedville of the Stateline Motel, Rte. 83 has won a fourth place ribbon for her knitting including fourth place in granny, third place in croche and fourth place in fish recently. What a lady. That means she's won ribbons not only at the Wisconsin State Fair, but at the Kenosha County and Lake County Fairs as well.

I saw one of my comrades from the Antioch News in town last week. Roger Ruthhart, who is the managing editor for all the Lakeland Newspapers, was in town shopping with his lovely wife. He said it's a long way to come for him, but for good buys and pleasant merchants it's worth it. Important too is that we all like to patronize those who advertise in the News.

Over $500 has been collected for the Ivy Family through the Ivy Family Fund. The family's home was completely destroyed by fire. Donations are still being accepted at the State Bank.

Several women deserve a pat on the back for their efforts to help the family. They are Betsy Houghton, Gail Kelly, Pat Center and Marilyn Speitz.

"People stopped at the house and gave money in hand," Mrs. Center said. "It's just nice to know the area you live in is so super."

If your interest lies in arts, crafts and handiworks of an extensive variety, the Swiss Village located in Kenosha is an ideal spot to get new ideas, supplies, lessons or simply browse.

Swiss Village is located in an old schoolhouse and is a unique way to spend a pleasant fall afternoon.

Good luck to the Sequoits this year. It looks like we have a good team and I've already heard we're the "team to beat" this year.

Local GOP will welcome Presidential hopefuls

Antioch Republicans will join GOP from across the nation as a growing interest develops as to who the party's Presidential candidates will be in 1980.

Local GOP and members of the Lake County GOP have announced that Ben Fernandez, Republican candidate for President of the United States would attend the 12th Annual Republican Picnic Sept. 9 with a statement that fellow candidate Harold Stassen, former Governor of Minnesota would also appear at the event.

"SEVERAL OF the candidates have expressed strong interest in coming. It's quite possible that others will be with us as well," Lake County GOP Chairman George Kangas said. Sen. Howard Baker's campaign committee is determining whether a previous commitment can be changed to enable him to attend. It is expected that U.S. Sen. Richard G. Lugar of Indiana or U.S. Sen. John C. Danforth of Missouri will appear if Baker's plans are not changed.

"The response of the Republican candidates to our invitation is evidence of the importance they place on Illinois and on Lake County in particular," continued Kangas. "The picnic represents a great opportunity for Lake Countians to meet and greet these outstanding men."

Plans for the event beginning at noon at former Willow Park located on the east side of Druce Lake on Rte. 45 between Rte. 132 and Washington St. provide an opportunity for informal conversation with the candidates and for brief remarks by each.

Emphasis will be on informality. Tentative speaking times, dependent upon candidate's travel schedules, are Harold Stassen, 12:15 p.m.; Howard Baker, 1:15 p.m.; and Ben Fernandez, 2:30 p.m.

Waukegan announces Speedway closing

by MICHAEL H. BABICZ
Sports Editor

After Sept. 15, the sound of finely tuned racing engines and the cheers of crowds will be only memories of Waukegan Speedway as the facility permanently closes after 30 years of operation.

Promoter Gordon Sill, president of Lake County Racing, Inc. which operated the one-quarter mile track since August, 1963, says the reason the track is closing is it is "being forced out."

He further explained that five acres of land have been given to Park City by the land owners for the building of municipal buildings and a ball park which is already under construction just southwest of the track.

Most of the equipment used to maintain the track is being sold. The track's bleachers have already been purchased.

SILL EXPLAINED, "Everything that belongs to me, I am selling."

As for the future of Sill and his wife Lorraine who assists him in running the business, he says that they "will stay in racing" next year, however, he is still considering several offers and has not as yet decided what they will actually be doing.

For the drivers, the story is a little different.

The late model cars are expected to split up and "go their own ways" which is the same thing which happened when Waukegan changed back to clay in the 1978 season after having been asphalt since the 1969.

THE HOBBY STOCKS, a division which Sill "created" at the speedway and have run every night the speedway has held races or special events will probably be hurt the most. There are over 150 registered cars this season with a turnout of 40 to 50 each race night.

"There's places for them to run, but they can't afford to tow that far," the veteran of 30 years in the racing business explained. "They don't make that much money to begin with."

Some of the closer tracks where some cars may go are Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot, Sante Fe Speedway in Willow Springs, Raceway Park in Blue Island and Illiana Speedway in northern Indiana although most of those tracks are at least 45 minutes from the Waukegan area and Lake County where a majority of the drivers are from.

THE TRACK began hosting races on a Sunday afternoon in Sept., 1949 when Harry Turner won the initial race.

The Merrell brothers and Charlie Agnew began the operation. Lake County Racing took over the track following Midwest Speedways and Sill's organization has run the facility the longest.

Late model stock cars have always been an attraction at the speedway along with periods when sprint cars, midgets, modified and super modified racing has been held. Motocross and thrill shows have also been at the facility with the Joie Chitwood Show being there in August.

Despite several other tracks, such as Capitol Speedway in Oregon, Wis. and Cedarburg Raceway in Cedarburg, Wis. closing this year also, Sill is optimistic that short track racing "is here to stay" but he quickly added "one night a week."

THE GAS shortage is being blamed by Sill for the decline in attendance at short tracks while NASCAR is enjoying a banner year with record crowds turning out for the superspeedway events.

"People are saving their money and gas to go to one place but not another," he explained. "The gas deal is hurting racing and so is the weather."

Waukegan has lost a dozen nights to mother nature this year and lost 15 last season which was a near record.

For Sill, racing has been a family business as his son Gordy is a starter with his daughters Carol and Karen, cashiers.

It all began as a "hobby" when he owned cars which ran at Soldiers Field in Chicago during the "Granatelli Days." Sill was also a promoter of modifieds at the O'Hare Stadium for 13 years, a pit steward at Kenosha County Speedway and a NASCAR track steward.

For Sill, his racing days will not end on Sept. 15 but for the Waukegan Speedway, the final checker flag will fall that night and an era will become memories.

Dodd, Colburn win Wilmot championship races

Darrell Dodd, Waukegan point leader, now all but proclaimed 1979 super-modified champion at Kenosha County Speedway and Dick Colburn, Muskego, the 1975 and 1976 champion, each won and finished second in the two heats of 79 laps of season championship racing Saturday night at Wilmot.

Dodd, the youngest driver, at 27, ever to win the Wilmot Championship, needs only to make an appearance on Saturday night, Sept. 8, to clinch the track title. However, should Dodd not appear, Joe Kristan would need a sweep to overtake the 62 point lead held by Dodd.

KRISTAN drove a near match to his No. 14 super-modified that was all but destroyed in a heat race at the Hales Corner Speedway on the previous night. The car had been owned by Gene Pennington but was sold just weeks ago to Greg Curzon who made the car available to Kristan to chase the championship at Wilmot.

It looked good in the initial heat race as Kristan was the winner. However, Dodd came right back to match that win in the next heat and the two entered the 39 lap heat with nearly the same margin as when the night started.

Gary Zobel led the opening laps before Dodd drove through to build up a near straightaway lead before Colburn took second. Rick Schmidt, Racine made the most impressive move to finish third over Gary Dye, West Allis and Joe Fote, Oak Creek.

Terry Illyess, Dundee led through lap 10 on the 40 lap championship heat until Colburn took over with Dodd third. Dodd got second and closed the gap but was not getting the bite on the track he had in the opening race.

AT THE CHECKERED flag it was again Schmidt third followed by Fote and Illyess.

Overall it was Schmidt third followed by Fote and Jim Moulis. Colburn recorded fast time at 16.57 seconds.

Point leader Jim Zwirg-double winner as he won the trophy dash and a heat. Other heats went to Tom Moore and Mark Huston, who won his first ever.

Rhonda Lanners repeated as the winner in the powder puff with Mary Brown, Pat Brewer and Anna Marie Dennis rounding out the top four.

Aichest led from start to finish in the 35-lap late model main on Saturday for his first feature win ever.

Waukegan racing sparked by record, roll-over, new victors

In Labor Day weekend racing at Waukegan Speedway, Don Collins of Antioch won the 35-lap Old Milwaukee Beer late model feature on Monday night.

The Anniversary "30" super modified main was won by 1979 track champion, Bob Robel of Oconomowoc, Wis. on Sunday and Bill Aichest of Chicago won his first late model feature ever in the 35-lap Pepsi Cola main on Saturday.

Hobby features were won by Mac McJunkin of Waukegan Monday, Dave Johnson of Evanston picked up his first ever on Sunday and Grayslake's Chuck Olson won Saturday's.

In Monday's late model main, George Fetzer led until lap nine following a yellow flag when Mike Frost took top spot.

FROST LED until the 12th circuit when Collins overtook the lead.

Collins was followed by Jim Zwirgzdas, Frost, Hank

Hovorka and Aichest.

Collins won the dash with heats going to Larry Steagall and Chuck Bostick. Mike Klemko set fast time with a 18.44 clocking.

Monday's hobby main was won by McJunkin followed by Robert Stone, heat winner Dave Hanna and Howard Wurster.

Chick Stolarik won the dash with heats going to Mike Sikich, his first ever, and Stolarik along with the Robel battled with Colburn and Gary Dye for several laps as all three cars were side by side much of the time.

The three-time Waukegan champ, Robel, used his knowledge to take the victory despite constant pressure from Dye which eventually caused the Wisconsin driver to spin out with two laps remaining.

ROBEL WAS followed by Colburn, Jim Moulis, Dye and fast qualifier John Tierney. Dye also won the trophy dash.

In the heat won by Spitz, Jeff Taylor went over the wheel of Bill Klein's car at the drop of the checkered and rolled twice in front of the starter's stand. Taylor was not seriously injured.

The hobby main was won by Johnson with Bill Lanners, Dave Hanna and heat winner Robert Stone rounding out the top four.

Mac McJunkin was a

School energy costs announced

Energy costs for the 1979-80 school year in the Antioch Grade School District are expected to cost $100 per pupil.

Names in the NEWS

Navy Tradesman Daane L. Troyer, son of June D. Troyer of Antioch, has been promoted to his present rank while serving with Fleet Training Group, Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

A 1969 graduate of Antioch Community High School, and a 1978 graduate of Mohegan Community College, Norwich, Conn., with an Associate of Science degree.

"According to the Educational Facilities Laboratories in New York City, schools, on an average are expected to spend $67 a year per pupil for energy expenses," said Antioch Grade School Supt. Donald Skidmore. "This compares to a cost of some $23 just six years ago."

"Some areas, particularly those in cold, harsh climates, are expected to spend as much as $100 per pupil or more annually," he said.

"This is about what we expect to pay for the 1979-80 school year." Costs have almost tripled during the past six years, he added.

Villagers help out fire victim family

The Antioch community has reached out to the Ivy family, whose home was completely destroyed by fire.

Through donations, the family has enough clothing and shoes and has received enough furniture to furnish the livingroom and kitchen of the house they plan to rebuild on the same property.

The family, currently living with relatives, consists of Mrs. Joan Ivy, her husband C.W. and three children.

A CHECK FOR $305 raised during McDonald's restaurant Buy a Pie benefit was presented to the family.

Because McDonald's is a family oriented restaurant, it "showed this through helping out a family that needed some help," said Chris Kellogg, store activities representative.

Items still needed by the family include dressers, two twin box springs, one twin mattress and a vacuum cleaner.

Electric appliances including an electric stove, refrigerator and electric clothes dryer are also needed.

AN ACCOUNT, the C.W. Ivy Family Fund, has been opened at the State Bank of Antioch.

"People in the area are terrific," Mrs. Ivy said. "I know I couldn't do it without them."

"When you live in a town so little, you really don't realize how many friends you have."

"The response has been unreal," said Pat Center, who has been helping organize donations for the family.

"IT'S REALLY amazing when you live in a small town the things you don't know about," she said of the many resources she's found to help the family.

She spoke of one group in Antioch called Food Basket, which offers food donations for people during emergencies.

The township office is also able to help people during difficult times, as well as the Benedictine sisters and the abbey, Mrs. Center added.

When donations are picked up, people are "so delighted to give it to you," she said. They often even rummage for more, she added.

"They're getting things that they never even expected," Mrs. Center said.

FINANCIAL NEWS

by
Phil Schaub

Last week's column was the last substantive one in our series on trusts. I hope this set of columns has helped you understand the fundamentals of trusts. The column format, of course, doesn't allow me to fully cover the topic. That would take several books and much more trust knowledge than I have. The purpose of these columns is to make you aware of what can be done, not tell you how to do it. To set up a trust, you should see your lawyer. Even if you read up on it first, the law changes so fast that only someone who spends full time on it can keep up.

Before we leave the subject of trusts completely, I do want to briefly review the concepts we've discussed. Trusts are based on the legal concept that ownership is not a single right. Ownership is a collection, a bundle, of rights. For example, you have the right to use the property; the right to keep others from using it; the right to sell it. Rights involving the use of the property are called beneficial rights. You can consider the right to sell the property as title. A trust exists when one person holds the title and someone else holds the beneficial rights. To set up a trust, you go to your lawyer and have him draw up a trust agreement. Then you pick a trustee and you and the trustee sign the trust agreement naming the beneficial owners. The trustee must follow the rules you put in the trust agreement. Now you can safely give the trustee title to property.

Trusts that you set up while you are alive are called living trusts. They can be revocable or irrevocable. Revocable living trusts are used to arrange management of assets and bypass probate, among other things. Irrevocable living trusts can be used to shift tax burdens, and are basically a matter of giving property away permanently, or for a period of time. They are primarily used in estate planning, often with dramatic results.

You can also set up a trust as part of your will. This is called a testamentary trust. Testamentary trusts are used primarily in estate planning and where a couple has minor children. This is an area that is too often overlooked. Many couples feel that because they have everything in joint tenancy, they don't need a will. But what about a simultaneous death, as in a car accident? That is when a will, with a trust for your minor children becomes essential. A will does more than allocate your property. In a will, you can name who you want to take care of your children. You can set up a testamentary trust to see that your children get full benefit of their inheritance. Without a will, the courts don't have to name anyone in particular as guardian. They don't even have to give the children to a surviving parent.

Busy year planned for school 'family'

A tradition of creating a sense of community and providing individual attention head plans for the school year at St. Peter's this fall.

The catholic school is "very serious about the basics, but determined to get the fine arts and physical education included" in its program, said Principal Sister Mary Roche.

The curriculum is "permeated by our Catholic philosophy in our religion classes," she said.

Each day classes are held at the same time "to do some adjusting for the individual needs of students," she said.

Faculty members must be serious about the development of each child, she added.

An inseparable part of the child is his family, she continued. "In everything we do, we try to include the family, instead of having the child separated," she said.

Many activities are planned for the school year, as shown by a busy calendar.

A career day for seventh and eighth grade students is planned. "The more we can prepare them for the future, the better," the principal said.

Oct. 2 is the date for the Parents Open House and the Oktoberfest, Oct. 6, is planned as a family affair.

A Faculty Institute Day will be held Oct. 5. The day is set aside as a renewal day spiritually and academically for teachers.

Parent teacher conferences are planned twice this year.

Several musical events, including dances, are planned this year.

The first Friday of each month the school children participate in the singing of the Mass liturgy and for Christmas they present a "musical show," the sister said.

An open house for the community will be held Feb. 10.

In January, the eighth grade will attend a retreat in Elkhorn.

The seventh grade will hold a family affair day, complete with dancing and basketball. "The activity is done in order to give the gift of a banquet to eighth graders who are graduating," she said.

A school tradition is the annual Fun Fair sponsored by the eighth grade. For the last two years the classes have contributed "at least $1,000 to the school, with money left over to treat themselves to a day at Marriott's Great America and a day at the ball park.

Other activities for the 203 children enrolled include a volunteer sports program for boys in grades six through eight, a cheerleading program for girls in grades six through eight and a spring track program for boys and girls from grades five through eight. "We're always hoping to expand that program," the Dominican sister said.

The curriculum includes religion, music, social studies, spelling, handwriting and physical education, and stresses reading, writing and arithmetic.

Although most of the school's students are from St. Peter's parish, there are "a few from surrounding parishes and a few non-Catholics who meld right in," she said.

The school's goal is "guiding the self-disciplined, self-motivated—Christian well on his/her way to knowing the reason for his/her existence and satisfactorily equipped and motivated to do his/her part to create a better world," according to the school's parent handbook.

One of the ways the school attempts this is through its sense of community, in which staff as well as faculty take an interest in the students.

The school secretary, Mrs. Joan Vistain, has been at St. Peter's for 18 years, seeing generations of families going in and out of its doors.

Another long-time community "resident" is Mrs. Kathryn Wells, who has worked in the school cafeteria for 23 years.

Along with the established community members, are four new teachers: Sr. Rita McDonough, O.P., grade 5A; Mrs. Mary Ann Lignowski, grade 2; Mrs. Judy Denzel, grade 1 and Mrs. Gloria Petraitis, gym.

A "key group" at St. Peter's is the school board made up of "parents past and present," she said.

"The pastor, assistants and deacons are 'all interested in our children,'" Sister Mary said, adding that through the care and support of the congregation and friends, the school is able to exist.

Rotary reports

The annual report of the Antioch Rotary is in, showing a wide range of activities serving the community.

Tom Kelly, president of the Rotary, said, "This report shows how much we can do. With the support of the community, we hope to do even more in the current year."

In its 1978-79 year under the direction of Homer White, the Rotary made many contributions to the area needs. In the area of youth, the Rotarians are proud to have been able to see that Troop 80 of the Boy Scouts could get full training.

The Antioch Little League

got financial support for new lights on their baseball diamond, in part through the efforts of the Rotarians. The Allendale School gym has received a new, lighted scoreboard.

Also supported was the international exchange student program, which can foster international good will and understanding as well as enriching the lives of all who live in Antioch.

During the year, the club provided host families in Antioch for Janet McMurray from Scotland and is presently providing host families for Matti Laurila from Finland. The Rotary sent one student, Matt Firestone, to Venezuela.

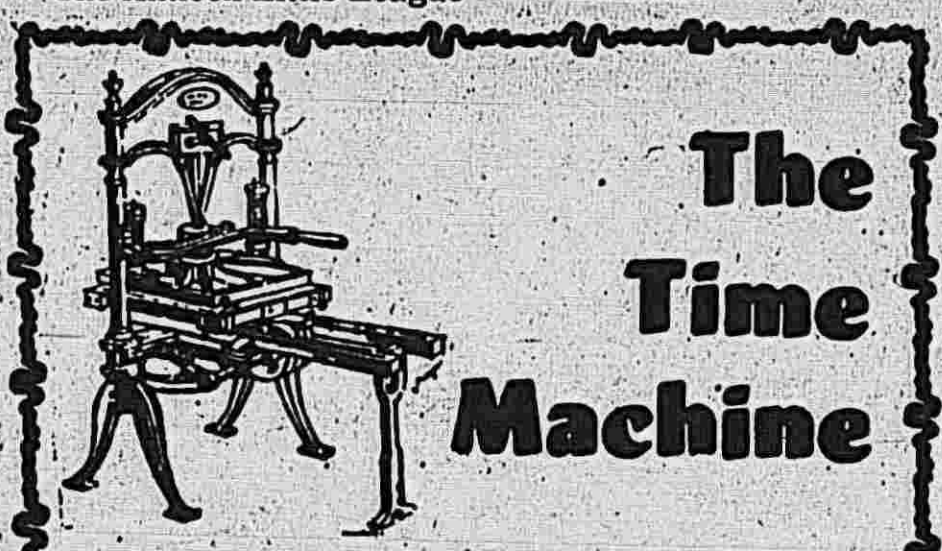

The organization has supported the Chain O' Lakes Senior Citizens' Meals with Wheels program.

The group helped send Bob Lange to juvenile officer's training. Now, with Rotarian help, Antioch has a fully trained juvenile officer.

The Rotary has also traditionally arranged and paid for the weekly church directory in this paper.

The club cannot do all these things without support from the community. Their major fundraiser is coming up. It is the annual Rotary Barbecue and antique auction which will be held at 6 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29 at the Antioch Action Center.

Kelly said "Last year's program was so successful that we've arranged more room this year. Everyone had a good time last year, and we expect them all to return. We do have room for more and look forward to serving and pleasing a good crowd." For more information about the Antioch Rotary, call Tom Kelly at 395-3030.

50 YEARS AGO: SEPT. 5, 1929

There wasn't a German flag in the capital city. When Secretary of State William J. Stratton learned that the Graf Zeppelin was to fly over Springfield, he ordered the German emblem to fly beneath the Stars and Stripes on the state house. When none could be found in the city, Sec'y Stratton ordered one made. Even then the Graf Zeppelin changed its course and flew north of Springfield.

"Where the Lotus Flowers Bloom," the latest song hit by N.O. Nelson, local author and composer, has made its appearance in Antioch and Chicago music stores. The song, a beautiful ballad of the Lake County area, is dedicated to Mr. Nelson's daughter, Ruth.

Other publications by Mr. Nelson that have met with wide sales are: "Who Hath the Love of a Mother," "Valley of Sunshine and Dreams" and "Chicago, Dear Old Chi."

Harry Willett left on Saturday for St. Louis, where he expects to take a course in aviation.

William Ackerman, Antioch plumber, paid a fine of $17.00 on a charge of reckless driving Tuesday, after it was determined that Miss Patsy Miller, a 19-year-old South Kenosha girl, who was hurled from his machine the previous Sunday was not fatally injured. Ackerman was not charged with intoxication, or drinking, as was reported to have been intimidated by officers, the only charge being that of wild driving.

Don King and his Melody Masters, direct from the Chicago Loop, are booked to play at the Antioch firemen's dance at Channel Lake pavillion Sept. 7.

Total enrollment at Antioch High School this year has reached 175, according to Principal L.O. Bright, who was busy assigning students to their classes and getting routine work underway.

30 YEARS AGO: SEPT. 1, 1949

Two men discovered trying to enter the Antioch News building through a side window were frightened away by Kenneth Moretensen from his apartments a few doors away. When he called to them, they got into a 1941 Hudson and drove away rapidly.

Archie B. Johnson, 85, a well-known resident of Antioch for fifty years, passed away Wednesday evening. He purchased the Antioch News from its founder, J.J. Burke in 1901 and operated the newspaper for twenty years. In 1926 he sold the paper to the late H.B. Gaston and retired from business.

Wind, hail and rain raked the Antioch area yesterday as the cool blasts of fall swooped down from the north to replace the summer temperatures.

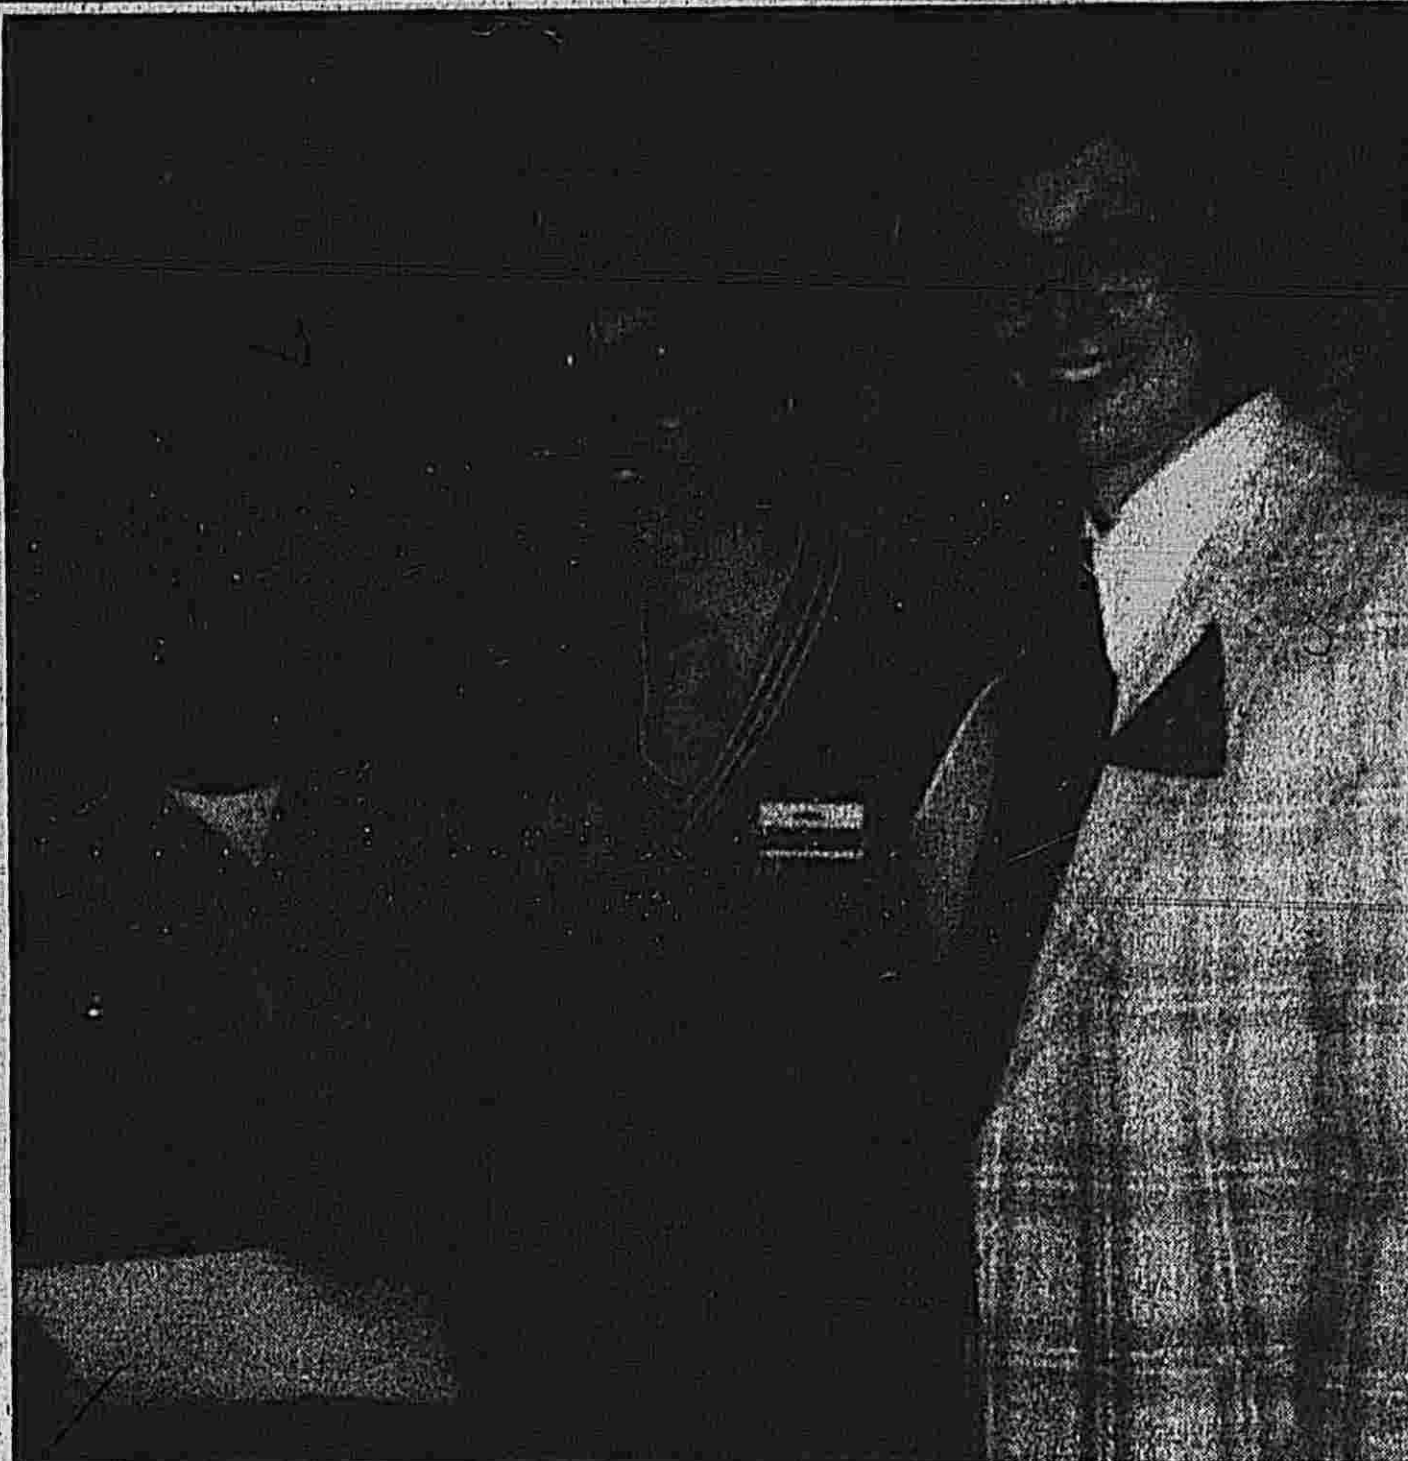

Antioch Rescue Squad Members are Herman Holbek, Captain, Walter Scott, Chas. Larson, Geo. Bartlett Jr., Einar Petersen, Lloyd Murrie, Fred S. Yates, Henry Rentner, Henry Quedenfeld, Jr., Elmer Hawkins and Everett Oftedahl.

10 YEARS AGO: SEPT. 4, 1969

Several students from the Antioch area have recently returned from Europe where they were studying with World Academy Schools for Foreign Study. They are Roberta Liberty, Laura Oftedahl, Les Surrock, Kathleen Koenig, Dee Wachta and Suzanne Gerasch.

On Sunday, Sept. 7, Rev. Philip O. Laurin, Jr. will preach his first sermon as Pastor of St. Stephen Lutheran, The Church on the Hill. Pastor Laurin, his wife Amy and two daughters, Kirsten and Karin, moved to Antioch last week from Rockford, where Pastor Laurin was assistant pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church.

Thomas Lasco, Antioch, was congratulated by Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley after accepting the flag for the Chicago Lakefront Company. This Company was a group of 100 young men who enlisted in the Marine Corps. August 20 at the Civic Center Plaza in Chicago.

RECEIVE DONATION — Jim Egem, left, VFW Post 4551 commander, presents check to Marian Rohde, coordinator for Antioch seniors' FFF and Russ Nixon, nutrition director for group.
